

CHRONOLOGICAL RÉSUMÉ

This résumé style lets you combine experience and employment history under one section. Because it highlights job progression, this style is best for nurses who increased their responsibilities with each new position.

Emily Adams

123 Oak Street
Anywhere, USA 80526
(781) 555-1212

OBJECTIVE

A clinical nurse specialist position on an OB/GYN unit

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Maternal Health Associates, Andover, MA 1998-present

Clinical Nurse Specialist

- Conduct prenatal exams and provide education to patients in a five-physician practice
- Teach prenatal classes to patients and their families
- Manage federally funded clinical research protocol
- Consult to community-based lactation consultants

Boston Memorial Hospital, Boston, MA 1994-1998

Staff Nurse

- Assessed and triaged patients in various stages of labor on arrival to hospital
- Counseled and educated patients in labor, postpartum and newborn care
- Assisted doctor with delivery and provided immediate newborn care
- Acted as preceptor to new orientees
- Served on unit-based JCAHO team

Morse City Hospital, Braintree, MA 1992-1994

Staff Nurse

- Provided postpartum care to patients on a 30-bed OB unit
- Floated to newborn nursery

EDUCATION:

MS, Nursing, 1998
Boston College
Chestnut Hill, MA

BS, Nursing, 1992
Northeastern University
Boston, MA